BIG ROLL OF MONEY FLASHED IN POLICE COURT THURSDAY
MORNING BY PRISONER
MURPHY.

Probably Hid the Roll in His Shoe, as
But $2.95 Was Found on Him
When Searched.

When Marion Murphy was searched by two policemen in the Blue Room at the First Police Station Wednesday evening, $2.95 in United States collateral was found in his several pockets. Marion is a comparatively young man. Wednesday afternoon he took a little vacation to rest up his weary bones, and ere he knew it he was beginning to see the little birdy in the foaming schooner. He was promptly gathered up by the cops when his load of freight became too heavy for him, and trolleyed to the Blue Room.
The Chief Executive didn't show up at the proper time at headquarters Thursday morning and Barlow Cole played the Ex-Officio stunt. He selected two cops from the Semi-Circle in the regular manner and commanded them to bring forth the prisoners.
The cops brought Mr. Murphy in before the Barlow. The latter had about finished making out a commitment paper for Murphy, when he told him he was fined $3 and the costs. Upon that, Murphy said ugh, ugh, dived down into his pocket and brought into the light of day a roll of money that was too big for a dog to jump over. He simply looked lousy with the bundle of green backs. He looked like a bloated bond holder. Barlow Cole commenced to get sick and one or two of the policemen had to go out of the room. The Murphy simply pried the verdant bundle of negotiability over and, slobbering generously upon his thumb, peeled a bill from it, tossed it upon the official desk and stood back, calmly waiting for his change.

For a while the city officers were too shocked to get the bill into change. Barlow even thought how much nicer it would have been to have fined the man $10. He finally regained his equanimity and dished a small handful of halves and quarters back to the waiting Irishman.
Murphy put on his hat and gave the push the grand go-by.
From all appearances the roll of dough the prisoner had with him must have contained something less than $18,000. It was almost as large as that big wallet that Uncle Sam takes care of.

BASE BALL BY BAR TENDERS

Local League and Fairmont Boys Will Cross Bats Here Next Tuesday.
Fine Game Looked For.

The local bartenders' league has arranged a game here with the Fairmont bartenders. The game will be played next Tuesday afternoon and will be called at 2 o'clock sharp, the visitors desiring to leave for home the same evening. The occasion is looked forward to with much expectancy, as it will be the only real game of the season here so far. The home team will have a strong line-up and the Fairmont fellows know their business, and as the result, it is thought the teams are pretty evenly matched and that the game will be a stiff one. The home team will have a college battery and show the spectators how the game is played from a scientific standpoint. The event will doubtless draw a large crowd and remind us of old days when we had the pleasure of fanning every afternoon. The admission will be only 25 cents, and ten cents extra for seats.

Get Down to Facts

Read What Clarksburg Citizens Say.
Get down to the facts of the matter. Don't take a stranger's word. It is easier to prove the truthfulness of statements made by citizens of Clarksburg than endorsement made by people living in some far-away place. Read the following:

A. J. Smallwood, general merchant, of 762 Pike street, W. Va., says: "For two years I had attacks of dull aching across the small of my back. When a man can only sit still a short time without the dull aching in the loins making him restless, when morning after morning he is lame and sore just above the hips, when stooping or lifting aggravates the movement and generally brings sharp, piercing twinges, that man is only too pleased to emphatically endorse the means employed which brought relief. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in a Clarksburg paper and thinking they might at least help, if not stop, an attack, I went to Wells & Haymaker's drug store for a box. The treatment did me a great deal of good. My back at the present time is better and stronger than it has been for months. Let me add, I have been annoyed with itching hemorrhoids commonly called piles, for which I have used unlimited salves and ointments and tried all sorts of doctoring. As Doan's Kidney Pills could be depended upon, I thought Doan's Ointment might carry out the representations made for it. I used it and it proved decidedly satisfactory. These two preparations should be universally known."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
